OPEN CALL
for artists

Live Screen @ The Herbert

Home For Waifs And Strays are very excited to be working with DASH and The Herbert to produce a new platform for artists, 'Live Screen at the Herbert'.

We will be commissioning four artists, who due to physical/mental impairment or disability find it difficult to leave their homes, to each create a new piece of performance/live art. The commissioned pieces will be live streamed from the artists' homes and projected onto a large screen at the Herbert Museum & Art Gallery in Coventry on March 16th 2018.

Each artist will receive mentoring from a mentor of their choice, who has experience working in the arts, mentoring, and working with disabled artists.

Each artist will also receive a fee of £1000 plus help towards accessibility costs and materials.

If you would like to apply for this opportunity please send;
